WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 2.

STATE OF WISCONSIN,

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

BY THE GOVERNOR.

Through the goodness of Almighty God health, peace, prosperity, and security to person and property have been accorded to the people of Wisconsin the past year, and our industries have received abundant rewards. Because of these benefits it is due that we reverently, and with sincere hearts return thanks to Him for His blessings.

Now, therefore, in accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States, I, Jeremiah M. Rusk, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby appoint as a day of public thanksgiving and praise, and I recommend that on that day the people of this State abstain from their usual vocations and return thanks for the innumerable blessings bestowed upon them by the Supreme Ruler, and that they remember by substantial benefactions and kindly deeds, the poor and afflicted among them.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1887,

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of State to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in Madison, this 27th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

[SEAL.] J. M. RUSK.

By the Governor:
ERNST G. TIMME, Secretary of State.

THE NEW YORK CAMPAIGN.

A campaign which clearly reflects the spirit and aim of the democratic party, is now going on in the state of New York. It is one of the worst campaigns of the many very bad ones, the democrats have conducted in the Empire state. There does not seem to be any sense of honor either in the party's methods or in some of its candidates. They are running the campaign on the Tammany guage, which is nothing less than an endorsement of all the boodleism of which some of the democratic candidates are guilty.

There is a terrible condition of affairs in the democratic politics of New York city. A good many of the officeholders are no better than the Cook county boodlers. The republican, saw that there was no hope for the election of a republican district attorney—a very important office in New York city—and so they indorsed the candidate nominated by Irving Hall, who is a Mr. Nicoll—a democrat, but a terror to the political scoundrels who have for years infested the public offices of the city Mr. Nicoll has been vigorous in the prosecution of the boodlers, and therefore Governor Hill and Tammany hall are opposed to him, and lend their support to one Mr. Fellows, who has always defended the rascals who have stolen millions from the city. Fellows is just the kind of a man the democratic party of the city and Governor wants in office; and the latter has been using every means within his power to drive Nicoll from the track that Fellows may be elected. The governor makes the very strange argument, but it is like a democrat of his sort, that it would be better to have a boodler district attorney elected and boodlers in office and unpunished, than the defeat of the democratic state ticket.

The spirit of the republican campaign in New York is shown by the following from the New York Times, the mugwump paper, but which endorses the action of the republican party.

There is not the slightest doubt that the republicans have scored a great advantage by nominating Nicoll and Martine. By doing it they have given their cause a moral aspect which it completely lacked before. Senator Hiscock and other republican campaigners have been quick to recognize this, and have begun to use it with great force in their speeches in the state. Senator Hiscock said at Glen Falls yesterday that, when the democratic party turned away from Nicoll because he had been a bold and able and successful prosecutor of bribe-takers and bribe-givers, the republican party took him up joyfully. "He was a democrat, but that did not matter, he had been a faithful official;" and then the senator added: "I assert that in making that nomination the republican party vindicated its right to continue its existence and to the support of the American people."

Under this condition of things there promises to be a democratic land slide in New York. The better class of democrats will support Nicoll, and will also vote the state ticket, so that the prospects are exceedingly bright for a republican victory next week. Governor Hill will leave his office to take the stump for the boodle candidates, and it has been suggested that he could "tell how the executive chamber has been converted into a brokerage shop for the control of important offices; how intrigues have been concocted there in which the appointing power has been used as a leverage for the prostitution of the public service to the lowest partisan schemes. He could tell, if he chose, how the rum power has dictated the government of the state under its administration, stalking supreme and arrogant into the executive chamber, and there guiding the governor's pen while he vetoed every bill sent to him to regulate and to restrict the traffic in liquor.

Brooklyn republicans are seemingly keenly aroused to the importance of winning a victory over the boss and ring ticket, as well as doing the handsome thing by Colonel Grant and the other state candidates. Great enthusiasm was manifested at a mass meeting held in the rink on Saturday evening, and meetings will be held throughout the city each evening until election, which will keep the interest at a high pitch. Colonel Baird is making a winning canvass, while Mr. Chapin is badly handicapped by being "Boss" McLaughlin's candidate and by his prominence as a railroad attorney. The issues are clearly drawn and voters can have no difficulty in choosing between them.

The supreme court of the United States at noon to-day, at the capitol in Washington, rendered a decision which will put a stop to the red flag business in America. The court denied the petition of the Chicago anarchists for a writ of error, and affirmed the death sentence of the Illinois court. This ends the matter so far as the courts are concerned and unless Governor Oglesby commutes the sentence or grants a respite, the anarchists will be hanged on Friday of next week, November 11th.

Professor D. G. Lyon, in The Independent, says that the abolition of compulsory attendance at daily chapel in Harvard University has been a success from a religious point of view. A large number of students are in the habit of attending the regular and special religious services that are provided for them. "The undergraduate religious life," says Professor Lyon, "is not all that we should like to see, but it is so much better than is popularly supposed to be, and seems so full of promise, that a just appreciation of it cannot fail to awaken profound gratitude."

Philadelphia Press: All in all, no such extraordinary spirit has been displayed in this country since the rebel armies surrendered. It shows what the feeling of the south still is. It more than justifies the loyal resentment of loyal people and the indignation of those Union veterans who so vigorously protested against the return of the captured rebel flags. It is evident that there are still too many rebel flags in the south and that veneration for the "cause that never dies" is still active.

In Germany the average duration of the life of gardeners, mariners and fishermen is fifty-eight years; butchers, fifty-four years; carpenters and bricklayers, forty-nine years; shoemakers and tailors forty-four years; compositors and lithographers, forty-one years, and laborers thirty-two years. Of the professions the average lifetime of clergymen is sixty-seven years; lawyers, fifty-four years; and physicians forty-nine years.

A resident of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, who has been confined in jail 298 days during the past year to insure his presence at a trial, put in a bill of one dollar a day for his time. The court not only disallowed his bill but charged him two dollars a week for his board. Why the witness was not compelled to work out his board bill with a ball and chain and afterwards sent to the penitentiary for life is not explained.

The gold mines of Australia continue to be very productive. Some of them are more than 2,000 feet in depth and many will be sunk even lower than that in the near future. This is contrary to the predictions of old mining experts, who said many years ago that no gold would ever be found in Australia at a depth greater than a hundred feet.

Bradstreet's railroad reports for the nine months of 1887 shows that 116 railroads have earned nearly $30,000,000 more than was earned by them during the corresponding period last year. This indicates that the poor oppressed railroads have not suffered by the tyranical interstate commerce law.

Tuesday, November 8th, New York, Massachusetts, Maryland, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Iowa will elect state officers and several other states will elect members of the legislature. Although it is an "off" year some of the contests are exceedingly spirited, notably in New York, Ohio and Maryland.

Muley Hassan, of Morocco, cuts of the heads of all tax-gatherers who fail to extort enough money out of the people. Muley is honest; he likes pernicious activity in his office-holders and he isn't afraid to say so.

The goose bone has been inspected by those who know the meteorological possibilities of the goose bone; and they unanimously report that it portends a warm, wet and unhealthy winter.

New York papers state that there is "increasing activity" at the Brooklyn navy yard. Naturally. An election involving important issues is at hand.

Milwaukee now has one thousand eighty four licensed saloons, the city receiving the handsome sum of $216,800 in license fees.

"Yes; I shall break the engagement," she said, folding her arms and looking defiant; "it is really too much trouble to converse with him; he's as deaf as a post, and talks like he had a mouthful of mush. Besides, the way he hawks and spits is disgusting." "Don't break the engagement for that; tell him to take Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It will cure him completely." "Well I'll tell him. I do hate to break it off, for in all other respects he's quite too charming." Of course, it cured his catarrh.

The Interoceanic Canal Expedition.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The Williams & Rankin steamer Honduo sails from this city on November 26 for Greytown, Nicaragua, with an expedition which is to complete the final location of the interoceanic canal route, and to prepare the work of construction that is to be commenced during the winter. The expedition consists of forty engineers and 110 laborers, in charge of Civil Engineer Perry.

Sandbaggers on the Highway.

VALLEY FARM, Pa., Nov. 2.—Herman Felty and his son, Horace, were beaten nearly to death on the highway and robbed of $1,275 and their personal valuables Saturday night. They are makers of farmers' implements, and had been making collections from customers.

An Election in Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 2.—The returns of an election held in this State yesterday to decide whether or not a constitutional convention should be called show that the vote fell 1,000 short of the 15,640 votes required by the act submitting the question to the people.

No Indictments Found.

DELPHI, Ind., Nov. 2.—The special grand jury summoned to investigate the Amber Green lynching has made its report. No indictments were found, and the county officials were held free from blame for their part in the affair.

MERCY NOT SOUGHT.

Lingg, Engel and Fischer Refuse to Ask for Pardon.

OPEN LETTERS TO GOVERNOR OGLESBY.

They Declare That If They Can Not Have Their Liberty Death Will Be Welcome—Sympathizers Petition the Governor.

"LIBERTY OR DEATH."

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The three most rabid of the condemned Anarchists, Louis Lingg, George Engel and Adolph Fischer, have prepared open letters to Governor Oglesby, in which they reiterate the principles which they have long advocated, and, like Parsons, demand either "liberty or death." Bomb-maker Lingg's letter was written in a scrawling schoolboy's hand, and is as follows:

"To Mr. R. J. Oglesby, Governor of the State of Illinois: Aware the fact that the progressive and liberty-loving portion of the American people are endeavoring to prevail upon you to interpose your prerogative in my case, I feel impelled to declare with my friend and comrade Parsons that I demand either liberty or death. If you are really a servant of the people according to the constitution of the country then you will by virtue of your office unconditionally release me."

Lingg then says his only crime, and the only thing proven against him, notwithstanding the employment of perjured testimony by the State, was that of calling upon the disinherited and oppressed masses to oppose the force of their oppressors—exercised by armed enforcement of infamous laws enacted in the interest of capital—with force, in order to attain a dignified and manly existence by securing the full returns of their labor. Continuing he says:

"And this crime is guaranteed not only as a right but as a duty by the American constitution, the representative of which you are supposed to be in the State of Illinois. But if you are not the representative of the constitution, like the great majority of officeholders, a mere tool to the monopolists or a specific political clique, you will not encroach upon the thirst for blood displayed by the extortioners, because a mere mitigation of the verdict would be cowardice and a proof that the ruling classes, which you represent, are themselves abashed at the monstrosity of my condemnation, and consequently of their own violation of the most sacred rights of the people.

"Your decision, in that event, will not only judge me but also yourself and those whom you represent. Judge, then!

"LOUIS LINGG,
"Cook County Jail, 30-10, '87."

Engel's letter appears to have been written by proxy, as the signature does not correspond with the writing in the letter. It reads as follows:

"A Letter to Governor Oglesby—Dear Sir: I, George Engel, citizen of the United States and of Chicago, and condemned to death, learn that thousands of citizens petition you, as the highest executive officer of the State of Illinois, to commute my sentence from death to imprisonment. I protest emphatically against this on the following grounds: I am not aware of having violated any laws of this country. In my firm belief in the constitution which the founders of this republic bequeathed to this people and, which remains unaltered I have exercised the right of free speech, free press, free thought and free assemblage, as guaranteed by the constitution, and have criticised the existing condition of society and succored my fellow-citizens with my advice, which I regard as the right of every honest citizen.

"The experience which I have had in this country, during the fifteen years that I have lived here, concerning the ballot and the administration of our public functionaries who have become totally corrupt, has eradicated my belief in the existence of equal rights of poor and rich, and the action of the public officers, police and militia, has produced the firm belief in me that these conditions can not last long. In accordance with this experience I have taught and advised. This I have done in good faith of the rights which are guaranteed by the constitution, and, not being conscious of any guilt, the powers that be may murder me, but they can not legally punish me. I protest against a commutation of my sentence and demand either liberty or death. I renounce any kind of mercy. Respectfully, GEORGE ENGEL."

Fischer writes as follows:

COOK COUNTY JAIL, CHICAGO, Nov. 1, 1887.—An Open Letter to Mr. R. J. Oglesby, Governor of the State of Illinois—Dear Sir: I am aware, that petitions are being circulated and signed by the general public asking you to commute the sentence of death which was inflicted upon me by a criminal court of this State. Absent this action of a sympathizing and well-meaning portion of the people, I solemnly declare that it lies not my sanction. As a man of honor, as a man of conscience and as a man of principle I can not accept mercy. I am not guilty of the charge in the indictment—of murder. I am no murderer and can not apologize for an action of which I know I am innocent. And should I ask 'mercy' on account of my principles, which I honestly believe to be true and noble? No! I am no hypocrite, and have, therefore, no excuses to offer with regard to being an Anarchist, because the experiences of the last eighteen months have only strengthened my convictions. The question is, am I responsible for the death of the policemen at the Haymarket? And I say no, unless you assert that every abolitionist would have been held responsible for the deeds of John Brown. Therefore I could not ask or accept 'mercy' without lowering myself in my self-estimation. If I can not obtain justice from the authorities and be restored to my family, then I prefer that the verdict should be carried out as it stands.

"Every informed person must, I should think, admit that this verdict is solely due to class hatred, prejudice, the inflaming of public opinion by the malicious newspaper fraternity, and a desire on the part of the privileged classes to check the progressive labor movement. The interested parties, of course, deny this, but it is nevertheless true, and I am sure that coming ages will look upon our trial, conviction and execution as the people of the nineteenth century regard the barbarities of past generations—as the outcome of intolerance and prejudice against advanced ideas."

Fischer then enters into a lengthy tirade against the "ruling classes," as he terms the capitalists, and declares that all the evils of the present time "find their origin in the institution of society which allows one portion of the human race to build fortunes upon the misfortunes of others; to enslave their fellow-men. Instead of trying to remedy these evils, and instead of ascertaining just what the cause of the widening dissatisfaction is, the ruling classes, through their mouthpieces, press, pulpit, etc., defame and misrepresent the character, teachings and motives of the advocates of social reconstruction and use the rifle and club on them, and, if opportunity is favorable, send them, the gallows and prisons." He concludes as follows:

"Society may hang a number of disciples of progress who have disinterestedly served the cause of the sons of toil, which is the cause of humanity, but their blood will work miracles in bringing about the downfall of modern society and in hastening the birth of a new era of civilization. Magna est veritas et prevalebit!

"ADOLPH FISCHER."

On the 11th of November, if the execution of the Anarchists takes place, all traffic within one block of the criminal court building will be rigidly prohibited except on Clark street. Cordons of police, assisted by the militia, will form solid columns along the intersecting streets, and to all except actual residents in this locality passage through the lines will be impossible during that day.

As the 11th of November approaches the conversations of the condemned are each day carried on in lower tones and with a growing suspicion that some one may be eavesdropping. It is quite likely that Sheriff Matson will permit the families of the condemned men to have private interviews with them as soon as the Supreme Court decides their fate.

It is a part of the plan of the Amnesty Association to take the wives and children of the Anarchists to Springfield in order that they may be present when the petition is presented to the Governor. It is the intention to show the Governor the families of the Anarchists, and to allow mothers and children, by voice and presence, to appeal for mercy. It is further expected that Captain Black will head the delegation of 100 persons, should that number be selected, as is now proposed, who, with the families of the condemned men, will go to Springfield either on Friday or Monday next.

The petitions are coming in very rapidly, and the number of signatures to date exceeds 40,000. Almost every part of the United States is represented.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 2.—Governor Oglesby has a large and varied assortment of anarchistic literature in the line of petitions which he considers of a personal and confidential nature. When requested to give to the public through the press some of the views contained in these communications he refused politely but firmly.

The Governor's private secretary refused to say whether or not the petition from the Paris Chamber of Deputies had been received, but there is good authority for the statement that it is in the Governor's possession. The committee of the Third Unitarian Church of Chicago arrived yesterday and presented the petition of ninety persons who ask for a commutation of the sentence to life imprisonment. Rev. J. V. Blake, J. M. Wanzer and Francis C. Russell presented the petition to the Governor and made a brief oral argument. Governor Oglesby smiled and agreed to consider the request.

Special to the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 2.—The United States supreme court has denied the petition of the Chicago anarchists for a writ of error, and the court affirms the death sentence of the court below.

Unless Governor Oglesby now grants the condemned anarchists a respite, they will hang on Friday of next week, November 11th.

THE INDIANS.

Commissioner Atkins, In His Annual Report, Says They Are Making Rapid Progress Toward Complete Civilization.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Commissioner of Indian Affairs Atkins, in his annual report, notes substantial evidence of continued progress on the part of the Indians towards civilization. The progress shows itself all along the line in increased knowledge and experience in agriculture, in enlarged facilities for stock growing, in better buildings and better home appointments, and in the adoption of the dress and customs of the white man. Higher evidence of progress, he says, is given in the largely-increased attendance of pupils at school and in the still more gratifying fact that the parents desire that their children shall avail themselves of the generous opportunities for education afforded by the Government, and by kind-hearted Christian missionaries who unselfishly devote time, labor and money to the education of the Indian youth. Commissioner Atkins devotes considerable space in his report to the subject of allotments of lands in severalty to the Indians under the law passed last winter. This policy, he says, is now being entered upon with fair prospects, and if steadily executed, will no doubt be all that the friends of the measure anticipated. Tables of estimates given in the report show that the appropriations required for the Indian service, during the past three years, and for the next fiscal year, have been on a descending scale. The estimate for the year ending June 30 last called for $7,328,049, and for the current year, $5,608,873; while for the next fiscal year it is fixed at $5,488,897. This total decrease of nearly $120,000 in the estimate for the next fiscal year is made in the face of a very considerable increase in some of its items, such increase amounting to nearly $200,000.

Referring to the subject of teaching only English in Indian schools, the commissioner says no unity or community of feeling can be established among different peoples unless they are brought to speak the same language, and thus become imbued with like ideas of duty. The orders issued in regard to this matter do not, as has been urged, touch the question of the preaching of the gospel in the churches, nor in any wise hamper the efforts of missionaries. He says he is pleased to note that five civilized tribes have taken the same view of the subject, and English is alone taught among them.

O'BRIEN FIGHTING IN JAIL.

Resisting the Efforts of the Officials to Make Him Wear the Prison Garb.

CORK, Nov. 2.—A sickening struggle is in progress between the prison officers and O'Brien, who is determined not to be treated as a common prisoner. He has refused to wear the prison garb, and forcibly resists all attempts to put it on him, declaring that he would rather lose his life than submit to the indignity. He also declares that he will do no hard labor, and demands that he be treated as a political prisoner. By the advice of the mayor, the governor of the prison has telegraphed to the prison board asking advice as to the course he shall pursue. The mayor will see Mr. O'Brien daily and report to the municipal officers.

ONE WAS SAVED.

A Survivor of the Wrecked Vernon Rescued from a Raft.

HIS VERSION OF THE CATASTROPHE.

Sixty Hours of Suffering in the Freezing Water Aboard a Frail Float—Fifty Persons Were Aboard the Doomed Vessel.

SAILOR STONE'S RESCUE.

STURGEON BAY, Wis., Nov. 2.—Up to the arrival of the schooner Pomeroy from Chicago, which passed through the bay yesterday, it was supposed that not a single survivor was left of the forty or fifty people who were on the propellor Vernon when she went down off Sheboygan early last Saturday morning. It is now known, however, that at least one man lives to tell the tale of that terrible night on Lake Michigan. The Pomeroy has on board the only survivor, so far as now known, of that awful disaster. The name of the man who has thus been rescued from death after he had given up all hope of ever again setting his foot upon dry land is Alfred Stone. He is from Chicago and is one of the Vernon's crew. He had been in the water sixty hours, exposed to a bitter, piercing wind, and without a bite to eat, when the Pomeroy discovered him on a raft Monday night about eight miles from Sheboygan. It was a clear, moonlight night. Stone was so cold as to be almost helpless and so weak from hunger that he could scarcely move. Although still very weak from the effects of his awful experience Stone was able to make a brief statement of the never-to-be-forgotten night. Said he:

"I was awakened in the middle of the night by the cries of the passengers and crew that the vessel was sinking. I sprung out of the window and found myself on a life raft with six other persons. I can not say now who my companions were. Part of them were members of the crew and part were passengers. It seemed only a moment before the vessel had gone down, and I believe that all but a few of those on board went down with her. On the steamer there were twenty-five passengers and twenty-five of a crew, all told. Two passengers were taken on at Sheboygan, the balance at Point St. Ignace. There were among the passengers six ladies. No children were on board. They were mostly bound for Chicago.

"We passed through an awful night. I think I never saw such a sea as that which tossed our little raft at its mercy. When daylight came we hoisted a signal of distress, using a coat tied to an oar. Two vessels passed so near us on Saturday that they must have seen our signal; yet for some reason they apparently made no effort to reach us. The storm still raged, and it may be that they had all they could do to save themselves.

"One after another of my companions perished in the cold or was washed off the raft when he became too numb with the cold to hold on any longer. We never saw any others from the sunken steamer, and I don't believe that any others survived. The vessel went down so suddenly that the crew hadn't time to man the boats."

When Stone was picked up there was the corpse of one man on the raft with him, the other four having perished several hours before. Stone says this man was one of the crew, whose name he does not know. Saturday, he says, was a bitter cold day, and the only way he could keep from freezing was by moving about. As it was, his feet were quite badly frozen. He had on a life-preserver, cork underwear, breeches, Mackinaw shirt, blouse, coat and shoes. This warm clothing, together with his strong physique, doubtless saved his life.

He talked with the crew on the raft before they died, and they all seemed to attribute the wreck to the overloading of the vessel and the non-closing of the gangways, together with the putting out of one of the fires Friday night. The second fire went out about an hour after the first. The boat did not carry any canvas, and when the fires were out ran before the wind. The vessel was heavily freighted with a cargo of pig-iron, potatoes, fish, staves and apples, the gangway on the larboard side being one and one-half inches above water, and on the port side six inches.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 2.—Edward B. Dorland, traveling agent of the wholesale drug house of H. Bosworth & Sons, in this city, was one of the victims of the Vernon disaster. He was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

MANITOWOC, Wis., Nov. 2.—The bodies of two of the victims of the Vernon disaster were picked up and brought here yesterday by the tug George Pankratz, which was chartered by Captain Burke, of Chicago, part owner of the Northern Michigan line, to search the lake. No further bodies nor any wreckage was seen and the search was given up at dark. The bodies await identification.

THE CROW INDIAN TROUBLES.

Sword Bearer and the Sioux—A Destructive War Prognosticated.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 2.—A special from the Crow Agency, M. T., says the Indians reported Sword Bearer to have been in the Big Horn Mountains Monday communing with the spirits. He tells them he goes to where God lives, who has a Chinaman, a white man and an Indian there, with which to begin the world over again when all are killed in this war. The colored troops from McKinney camped at the agency yesterday, making six companies here. Most of the Indians coming in in response to General Ruger's orders are squaws and children.

Strange Action of Quarantine Officers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Mystery and concealment mark the doings of the quarantine officers here in regard to the cholera cases. It has been discovered that two persons bulletined Monday night as having been removed from the Alesia, suffering from measles, had actually died of cholera. Dr. Smith's assistant stated there were no cases of measles at the quarantine station; nevertheless another bulletin had been prepared, stating that five more cases of "measles" had been removed from the Britannia.

Gossip Causes a Suicide.

ELKHART, Ind., Nov. 2.—Miss Mamie Adams, adopted daughter of Rev. F. W. Adams, of St. John's Episcopal Church, of this city, committed suicide Tuesday by taking poison while the family was at a funeral. She could not live and know that people were saying such things of her.

Dairy Products.

MANCHESTER, Ia., Nov. 2.—Yesterday the National Butter, Egg and Cheese Association began its annual session, with President D. T. Schermerhorn in the chair. Interesting reports were read. The falling off in the consumption of dairy butter was said to be due to the sale of oleomargarine.

Harper Removed to Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 2.—E. L. Harper, of Fidelity Bank notoriety, was removed last night from the Dayton jail to the prison in this city, so that he might be more conveniently located for conference with his attorneys. His trial is set for November 20.

Fire at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Fire Tuesday destroyed Ellis Webster & Son's ice-house and $10,000 worth of lumber in Haines' woodyard. An elbow in a new hose burst, scalding and injuring three men quite seriously.

Old and reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Elixir has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrofulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial diseases, it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal. Sold by Prentice & Evenson D. P.

The great telescope of the Chicago Astronomical society has been formally transferred to the Northwestern University at Evanston. The students of the latter institution "celebrated" the event with enthusiastic demonstrations Monday night.

Representatives of the National Wool-growers' Association and the Ohio Wool-growers' Association appointed a committee Tuesday to confer with Eastern manufacturers with a view to harmony and a protection of their interests.

A CRY FOR RELIEF.

Business Men Protesting Against the Enforcement of the Rules Prohibiting Advertisements on Mail Matter.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Since the recent publication of the revised rules and regulations of the Post-Office Department the Postmaster-General has received a large number of complaints from prominent business men in the large cities protesting against the enforcement of the rule prohibiting the use of wrappers of second, third and fourth-class mail matter as an advertising medium. The Postmaster-General replies that he can afford no relief, because the rule is made in accordance with the law—a law which has been in existence since 1879, but which has been persistently violated. He will ask Congress to repeal it.

TERRIBLE GALE.

The English Coast Visited by a Disastrous Storm—Many Vessels Wrecked and a Score of Lives Lost.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A gale prevails throughout England. Telegraph wires have been broken, chimneys blown down and trees uprooted. Seven vessels were wrecked at Cardiff and many wrecks are reported from other places. At Falmouth a number of vessels have been driven ashore. Among them is the Danish brig Thusnelde, which is submerged. The captain and one seaman are missing. The British ship Temple Bar is reported to have foundered in the British channel, and the crew, numbering eighteen men, were drowned.

THANKSGIVING.

Proclamation Issued by Governor Oglesby, of Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 2.—The Governor issued the following proclamation this evening:

"STATE OF ILLINOIS, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Nov. 1.—Thankful to Almighty God for the gracious favors extended to us as a people throughout the year, I, Richard J. Oglesby, Governor of the State of Illinois, do hereby designate Thursday, November 24, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer, and earnestly request that all the people of the State will in the spirit of confession and thankfulness appropriately observe the occasion with all humility, benevolence and charity.

"RICHARD J. OGLESBY, Governor.

"HENRY D. DENENT, Secretary of State."

Three Men Killed by an Explosion.

NEEDLES, Cal., Nov. 2.—An engine exploded near Hack Berry Monday night, killing Engineer Schroeder, Fireman Long and Brakeman Trapp. Their bodies were found 100 feet from the track.

Want Titles Abolished.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—At a meeting of the Farmers' Alliance, composed of radicals, a "plan of campaign" was strongly advised for the abolition of titles in England.

What Am I To Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is selfom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, also, he has an excellent appetite for liquors but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure, try Green's August Flower, it cost but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

WITHOUT WARNING.

Eight Persons Killed in Their Beds by the St. Louis Explosion.

FOUR OTHERS HURT, ONE FATALLY.

Several Buildings Wrecked by the Disaster, the Cause of Which Is Partially Shrouded in Mystery—Details of the Awful Affair.

EIGHT KILLED.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 1.—Three buildings were wrecked, sixteen persons buried in burning ruins, four of them hurt and eight of them killed, by the explosion of some unknown but powerful explosive in Michael Newman's grocery store soon after 2 o'clock yesterday morning. After the explosion fire broke out in the ruins, adding its horrors to the calamity. Rescuers were soon on the spot and the hands of firemen and policemen were soon tearing away the debris from about the imprisoned people. By daylight all had been removed. The dead are:

Michael Newman, aged 52; Mrs. Annie Newman, aged 40; John Newman, aged 16; Kate Newman, aged 12; Eddie Newman, aged 23; Charles Devere, Mrs. Charles Devere and Mrs. Agnes Beasley.

The wounded:

Nellie Newman, may recover; Miss Hattie Bryant, slightly hurt; Mamie Newman, recovery impossible, and Mrs. Bella Wilson, slightly hurt.

The mangled and burned forms of the dead lie in the morgue awaiting burial. Every one is bruised and black from contusions and flames, and the bodies are distorted by the death agony. Death came in nearly every form; life was either crushed out, burned, shocked by the explosion or smothered. Some never awoke to feel the dread, and others lived in the hope to be rescued by men whose shouts they heard above them.

The store was in the corner of the alley running through from Fourteenth to Targee street, and was the north room of the building over Nos. 7, 9 and 11 South Fourteenth street. The building, a two-story brick, was completed but a short time ago, and only one store was occupied. All of the up-stairs portion was divided into tenements. Mr. Newman and his family of seven lived over the store. The force of the explosion was terrific; the entire block of buildings north of and across the alley from the building in which the explosion took place were gutted by the blast. The Newman Block crushed in was covered by the roof which had settled down upon the ruins and formed a barrier through which the rescuers had to cut a way. Beams and walls impeded their progress, and threatening walls on either side overhung ready to crush the gallant men who pressed to the spot where calls for help directed them. The roof was soon removed and in the debris were revealed the mangled forms of the groceryman's family. Two ladies, Newman's daughters, were first removed. Maggie, eighteen years of age, was still alive, but mangled from the timbers and charred by fire, was beyond the hope of recovery. Her sister Nellie, a girl of fifteen years, moaned piteously for her sister, and seemed to forget her own injuries in inquiries for her sister. For the half hour that these two had been imprisoned, their efforts had been to draw near to each other, when they saw escape impossible. Neither can survive. The rest of the Newman family, five in number, were dead. Some sat upright and others were doubled in their beds, killed in their sleep.

In the same building over store room No. 9 lived Charles N. Devere, a traveling salesman and his wife. Visiting them was Miss Hattie Bryant, of Columbus, Ky. She was badly injured, but miraculously escaped death.

Over store-room No. 11 resided Mrs. Bryant and two boarders, Charles Elfferd and Mrs. Beasley. The last-named was buried so deeply in the debris that the search for her was given up until others were removed. Charles Elfferd was taken out uninjured.

Besides those persons injured in this building, were many persons in the neighborhood more or less cut or bruised, for the flying splinters and bricks did not alone destroy the Newman store. For several blocks on either side of the streets the concussion shattered the windows and in the immediate vicinity in the opposite side of the way the front of buildings were smashed in by the terrible force, and scarcely a window or a door remains. Walls cracked, floors gave way and plaster fell in almost every house within a radius of a hundred yards.

There are many theories to explain the cause of the explosion, but none are satisfactory. The crowd that pressed around the scene excitedly talked of Anarchists and dynamite, but men of sense discountenanced this idle prattle. The general belief is that escaping gas filled the cellar, and that Mr. Newman kept a quantity of kerosene oil and gasoline in the cellar near where the explosion evidently took place. The rapid fire and the fumes while it burned indicate this. The vessels and the oil, if there was any, have been destroyed, and the only man that knows is dead. The escaping gas theory is supported, however, by the store boy, Joe Bienvenue, who says that he was annoyed during the afternoon Monday by a strong smell of gas, and before shutting up the store for the night at 7:30 o'clock he went through the building looking for the open burner. He did not visit the cellar. The tremendous force of the explosion is the cause of greatest doubt to this explanation. A great crowd lingers around the place, but the work of rescue is over.

The financial loss caused by the explosion will amount to about $20,000, divided in small amounts among the property-owners in the neighborhood. The principal loss falls on William Renshaw, who owns the demolished building, 7 to 13 South Fourteenth street. He recently purchased the building for $10,000. The losses are fully covered by insurance.

Value of O'Brien in Prison.

DETROIT, Nov. 2.—The following telegram, sent from here yesterday morning, explains itself:

DETROIT, Nov. 1, 1887.—Joseph Gillis Biggar, M. P. London, Eng.: The league is getting into line. Ten thousand dollars more to-day accordion. Half this sum from fearless Philadelphia. O'Brien in prison worth $10,000 a week.

Thought to Be a Poisoner.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Parker, aged 60, who is regarded as slightly demented, was arrested Tuesday on suspicion of having poisoned her daughter's family, all of whom, however, will recover. As Mrs. Parker's son-in-law died of poison last Christmas, suspicions have been aroused that his death was not accidental.

He May Get Well.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 2.—Charles Griggs, harness-maker of Royal Center, Ind., Monday night took twenty grains of morphine, cut his throat with a knife, and then thrust the blade through his neck. He received the care of a physician and may recover.

Hideous in Every Guise.

Whether it be the best known form, chills and fever, or else bilious remittent, double ague or ague cake, is that abominable disorder involving the liver, the bowels and the kidneys, known as malaria. Every complaint classified under this generic, though erroneous appellation, is destructive of the nervous system, but is, unhappily not to be subdued or even checked by the use of ordinary nervines, febrifuges or tonics. There is, however, prompt relief and ultimate cure to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, foremost among the proprietary remedies of America, and widely known in other lands. Not only diseases born of miasma, but rheumatic complaints, superinduced by exposure to bad weather, inherited or incurred debility of the kidneys or bladder, dyspepsia and an irregular condition of bowels, are curable—nay certain to be cured by this deservedly esteemed and professionally sanctioned rective.

During the last five years Dr. Vance has devoted his attention almost exclusively to the treatment of

Diseases of the Rectum

He is meeting with success in all diseases that are curable. Some patients neglect to have treatment until it is too late. His treatment is almost painless, and does not prevent his patients from doing ordinary work. Patients improve from the first treatment.

The doctor may be consulted at the Myers House, on November 14th and 15th. All who are troubled with any form of Piles, etc., should call upon him.

OFFICE ALEX. COOK, ATTY. AT LAW, WAUKESHA, Sept. 13, 1886.

In the interest of suffering humanity, I am prompted to say that after having been afflicted with an aggravated type of Piles for more than thirty years, being advised there-to by trustworthy medical authority, based on personal experience, I placed myself under the treatment of Dr. Vance, of Madison. And my advice to all suffering in like manner is unhesitatingly to do likewise, and thereby receive full as apparently in my case, permanent cure. A. COOK.

FOOTS, LED. WIS., September 25, '85.

I was troubled with Piles for about twenty-five years. Under Dr. Vance's treatment I have entirely recovered. While under treatment I was not prevented from work a single day. I can recommend Dr. Vance and his system of treatment for Piles to all who are afflicted. HORACE V. WRIGHT.

PARLOR AND PANTRY.

DISEASE is often transmitted by the hands through the mouth. Always wash the hands on coming out of a sick-room.

A FADED carpet of any kind can be restored to almost its original freshness by the use of one part ox-gall to two parts water, applied with a sponge.

A DROP or two of ammonia on the brush when cleaning the finger-nails is an excellent remedy for discolored nails. The ammonia should be diluted to the proper strength.

CASTOR-OIL may be pleasantly administered to children by treating in this way: Pour the oil into a pan over a moderate fire and stir, adding a little jelly or sugar to flavor.

AN excellent way of cooking eggs is to break them in boiling milk without beating; cook slowly, stirring now and then. When done soft, pour into a dish and add a little pepper, salt and butter.

FRENCH TOAST.—Beat three eggs, add a pint of sweet milk and a pinch of salt. Cut in slices an inch thick a loaf of stale bread, dip in the egg, fry in hot butter, sprinkle with sugar and grated nutmeg.

A NICE dish of quinces or pears is made as follows: Place the fruit in a steamer and cook until tender, then pour on boiling water, but not enough to cover them. Sprinkle over with sugar and brown them in a hot oven.

THERE is nothing better for taking grease spots from clothing than equal parts of strong ammonia water, ether and alcohol. Place a piece of blotting paper under the spot, moisten a sponge first with water, then with the mixture and apply.

MILDEW or stains of most kinds will disappear upon the application of javelle water, made as follows: Dissolve one-quarter pound of sal soda in four quarts of water and stir in one pound of chloride of lime. Shake well and let it stand to settle. Pour off the clear liquid and bottle for use.

GILT picture frames that have not been covered and are spotted by the flies, unless very poor, may be washed in clear water, allowing the water to soak off the specks and doing just enough rubbing to remove them easily. Dry with a soft cloth and rub very gently to bring back the lustre.

IF a cellar has a damp smell and can not be thoroughly ventilated, a few trays of charcoal set around on the floor, shelves and ledges, will make the air pure and sweet. If a large basketful of charcoal be placed in a damp cellar where milk is kept, there will be no danger of it becoming tainted.

IN washing grained woodwork use clear water or cold tea. Where there are finger marks to be removed, such as around the door-knob or on the window sill, a little fine soap can be used, but only just enough to do the work, for soap should be used for this work only on very rare occasions, and ammonia never used.

SPICED FISH.—Prepare half a dozen fresh mackerel or other fish as for broiling; place them in a jar and strew over them as laid in, a mixture of 2 tablespoonfuls each of ground cloves, whole cloves and black pepper corns. Pour over vinegar, cover closely, or tie a thick brown paper over the jar, then bake three hours in a slow oven.

MEAT CAKES.—Chop very fine 2 pounds of lean raw beef—a meat chopper will do it best; mix with it 2 well-beaten eggs, a teacupful of very fine bread crumbs or rolled cracker; moisten with stock or gravy, or if neither is on hand, with hot water. Add butter the size of an egg and 2 teaspoonfuls salt; mix all well together, then mould into cakes, and fry in butter or drippings to a nice brown.

BE sure that the water is at boiling point before putting into it the vegetables to be cooked. If it is cold or lukewarm, the freshness and flavor will soak out into the water. Place the saucepan over the hottest part of your stove, so that it will boil as quickly as possible, and be careful that the boiling process does not cease until the contents are thoroughly cooked and ready to be dished.

THIS is an excellent way of preparing a canvas: "Melt and boil a quarter of a pound of glue in a pint of water. Mix a pound and a half of whiting in half a pint of water, melt and boil three ounces of soap, mix the whole together, stirring it well, and boil for a few moments. Spread on the canvas while warm; when dry rub with pumicestone until smooth, washing off the dust, then paint with white lead and turpentine; let it dry well in the sun."

My son has been afflicted with nasal catarrh since quite young. I was induced to try Ely's Cream Balm, and before he had used one bottle that disagreeable catarrhal smell had all left him. He appears as well as any one. It is the best catarrh remedy in the market.—J C. Olmstead, Arcola, Ill.

Mr. A. Nichols suffered from catarrh for years. He purchased a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm of us. He is now almost cured, and says you cannot recommend it too highly.—Evers Bros., Druggists, Independence, Iowa.

HIS DAYS NUMBERED.

Jefferson Davis, the Rebel Chieftain, Reported Dangerously Ill at Macon—Death May Come at Any Moment.

MACON, Ga., Nov. 2.—There are considerable doubts as to whether Mr. Jefferson Davis will return to his isolated home at Beauvoir, Miss., alive. Since last Saturday he has been confined to his bed, and a physician has been in daily attendance. His faithful wife has been at his bedside continually, and every attention has been accorded to the sufferer. The wound which he received in the Mexican war is troubling him considerably, and he is scarcely able to walk. He is in a very enfeebled condition, and his family are fearful that he will not recover from the exhaustion. He has spoken but little since Saturday, and has taken but little nourishment.

Dr. McHatton, the attending physician, expresses great fears of Davis' inability to leave the city on Thursday as was arranged before his visit. Mrs. Davis watches him constantly, and deals out his medicine to him as directed. It is understood that his daughters, who are the guests of the city of Macon, have been summoned to their father's side. The end is expected at any moment. Yesterday he felt greatly improved, and, despite advice to the contrary, he entertained the young ladies of Wesleyan College. When they called at 4 o'clock Mr. Davis was helped down-stairs by Mrs. Davis and Captain John Johnson. When the reception was concluded he returned to his room completely exhausted. He rallied at times and earnestly questioned those about him concerning the result of General Gordon's speeches in Ohio, and the manner in which the Northern people are disposed to receive his conciliatory utterances.

A BIG DEAL.

The West Division Street Railway in Chicago Sold for Nearly $13,000,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The largest financial transaction in the history of Chicago was consummated Monday, in the approval of a lease, which transfers the control of the West Division railway to the Yerkes syndicate, owners of the North Side road and of the gas companies.

The magnitude of this deal is seen when it is remembered that the capital stock of the old company is $1,250,000, that the stock for the purpose of the lease is valued at $700 a share, and that the bonded debt is $4,040,000, making a total of $12,700,000. This is two or three times as large as the Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph deal, about which so much was said in Wall street and which made and lost fortunes for speculators.

The length of the West Side road is something like ninety miles, and the price paid is therefore not far from $130,000 a mile, but it of course covers the franchise of the company, which is more valuable than any of its physical properties. The new company engages to provide thirty-five miles of the West Side road with improved motive power, which will naturally be a traction cable unless some better electric motor than is now in use can be found. The cabling of the road will involve an expenditure of several million dollars.

POISONED AT A FEAST.

Seven of the Guests Already Dead and Twenty Others Dangerously Sick.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—A special from Delhi gives the following particulars of a horrible wholesale poisoning. Last Friday evening George King, living near Lamara, in Franklin parish, gave a dance and supper at his residence. After the supper was nearly over all the guests were taken violently sick. A doctor was sent for, who said that the sickness was caused by poison and was unable to render much relief.

Seven persons have since died and twenty or more are dangerously sick. No motive can be assigned for the dastardly deed. The cook is not suspected to be guilty as she is dangerously sick, and her husband and one or two of her children are dead. The doctor and others are investigating the matter to ascertain the nature of the poison.

Striking Printers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The strike of the union book and job printers for nine hours work occurred yesterday. There were 440 men who quit work, out of a total of 700 union men employed. Confidence is expressed both by the striking printers and their former employers in the result of the strike; and the Typothetæ has declared eternal warfare on the Typographical Union.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—St. Louis job printers Monday asked for an increase of $1 per week each, and the employers refused to accede. If a favorable answer is not received by 10 o'clock to-day (Wednesday) the men will strike.

Shutting Down the Oil Wells.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 2.—The shut-down of the oil wells, manipulated by the Producers' Protective Association and the Standard Oil Company, went into effect Tuesday, and, it is alleged, is to continue eighteen months. Standard Oil is to divide the profits of 5,000,000 barrels of oil at 62 cents among the syndicate who shall live up to the contract, and 2,000,000 barrels are to be set aside to create a wage fund for the laboring men thrown out of employment.

In the Sheriff's Hands.

MEDFORD, Wis., Nov. 2.—The Exchange Bank of this city was taken possession of Monday afternoon by the sheriff on an attachment for $2,700, and later J. H. Wheelock, manager of the bank, made an assignment to E. H. Schweppe. The deposits are between $20,000 and $30,000, and all the school trustees, county and town treasurers and farmers and business men in the district are interested.

Count De Lesseps' Promises.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Count De Lesseps has announced to the Academy of Science that the Panama canal will be opened on February 3, 1890. The work will not then be entirely completed, but the passage will be free for twenty ships a day. It is estimated that the traffic will produce an annual revenue of from 90,000,000 to 100,000,000 francs.

A Valuable Coal Find.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 2.—Yesterday the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Company struck the great Baltimore vein of coal in South Wilkesbarre nearly 1,100 feet below the surface, the deepest shaft in Pennsylvania. This vein is between eighteen and twenty foot thick. This lucky find, for which the company has spent years and $100,000, will net them $3,000,000.

Fatal Runaway.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 2.—Mrs. C. J. Karle and Mrs. A. C. Stelle, prominent ladies of this city, were thrown from a buggy yesterday by a runaway horse. Mrs. Karle was dashed head first on a brick sidewalk and killed instantly, while Mrs. Stelle was very seriously injured. The community is much distressed over the accident.

An Early-Morning Blaze at Tuscola.

MATTOON, Ill., Nov. 2.—Wamsley Bros.' large flour-mill, the Central House and the city fire-engine house at Tuscola burned at daylight yesterday, entailing a heavy loss. The mill is reported to have been covered by $32,000 insurance.

Worth Knowing.

Mr W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla, was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing Cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at F. Sherer & Co's. drug store.

Strange Case of Poisoning.

A lawyer named Loeffler, at Loest, in Rhenish Prussia, a few weeks ago, while dressing, cut a little pimple from his lip with a pair of scissors. The latter were probably not clean, and the lip began swelling in a few days. Great pain and fever supervening, a physician was called in. After weeks of great suffering the patient died of blood poisoning. The young man was one of the most promising and esteemed members of the upper circles of the city.

BUSTLES OF SMUGGLERS.

They Are Now the Popular Hiding-Place for Small Dutiable Articles.

Since Surveyor Beattie began to appoint women as inspectors of customs, more attempts at smuggling have been detected than ever before, says the New York World. The women have shown great zeal and aptitude for the work, and the male inspectors, in order to make as good a record, have been exhibiting more activity than usual. The newest expedient for smuggling is the bustle. The bustle now required by fashion is a capacious structure of wire, and ocean travelers of the gentler sex who desire to escape customs duties have adopted the expedient of filling their bustles with merchandise. Deputy Collector McClelland said recently that bustles were becoming the burden of his life. It seemed as if every third woman arriving from Europe had her bustle filled with dutiable goods, and he was nearly distracted.

There was a large number of seizure cases reported the other day. It seems that nearly every woman who goes to Europe brings back a meerschaum pipe for some male friend. In the bustle of Fraulein Charlotte Weimmann, a passenger on the steamer Trave, Inspectress Westoner discovered two meerschaum pipe-bowls. Inspectress Lily R. Brierback found in the bustle of Mrs. S. H. Harbridge, a passenger on the steamer City of Chester, two meerschaum pipes and one cherrywood pipe. On Fraulein Weimmann's person and in her baggage were also found thirty yards of silk, thirteen yards of velvet, thirteen yards of satin, fifty yards of linen, three silk shawls and many other articles of value. Some of the stuff was concealed in her bustle. Around Mrs. Harbridge's waist were found two pieces of cashmere and another piece was found sewed in the lining of her skirt. In the bustles and on the persons of the Misses Evans, who arrived on the Rhineland from Antwerp, were found silks and velvets.

J. Bierman, who arrived on the steamer Trave, declared he had no dutiable goods. He was met on the dock by a friend, who approached Inspector G. Scherman and told him that if he would pass Bierman's trunks that gentleman would make it all right with him if he would call at his office, corner of Broadway and Houston streets. The inspector examined Bierman's trunks, which were found to contain the following dutiable articles: 7 books, 2 boxes of medicine, 12 linen sheets, 3 cases draughtsman's instruments, 6 tablecloths, 1 needle-case, 36 linen napkins, 12 towels, 1 pocket-book, 72 linen handkerchiefs, 6 fancy handkerchief boxes, 7 boxes toys, 1 card-case, 1 looking glass, 70 pieces ribbon, 15 dolls, and 12 umbrellas.

Inspectress M. S. Wilson also made a seizure from a passenger on the Trave. On examining the trunk of Miss Wagner she discovered a false bottom, which she removed, and below it was found the following articles: Three yards cotton velvet, 3 pieces of silk, containing 18¼, 17⅞ and 21 yards respectively, 1 gold watch and 1 gold bracelet. Miss Wilson then took the lady to a private room and searched her, and found 8 yards of woolen dress-goods concealed on her person.

Distinguished Public Servants.

John Quincy Adams received an appointment recently in the railway mail service, and will now sort letters—and ride on the cars free—in company with Daniel Webster, Andrew Johnson, Henry Clay and Andrew Jackson, all of whom serve their grateful country in the capacity of railway postal clerks.

Biggest Hog in Creation.

General interest of all the generals, is the biggest hog. His appetite is insatiable. He feeds mostly on notes and mortgages, and nobody ever heard him say: "There, I've had enough."

The De Pauw Endowments.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Nov. 1.—The Northwest Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has paid over to the trustees, through its agents, the full amount of its subscription to the De Pauw University endowment—$20,000. Four years ago Mr. De Pauw agreed to give $240,000 toward the endowment of the university if the Methodists of the State would give $60,000, and Greencastle and Putnam County $60,000, both additional. The latter $60,000 was promptly raised, and the four Methodist annual conferences of the State vouched for $15,000 each. The Northwest alone has paid principal and interest in full.

COURT GOSSIP.

A VISITOR at Windsor Castle says that it is not etiquette to address the Queen while dining, unless directly spoken to by Her Highness.

IT costs England nearly $6,000,000 a year to sustain the palaces reserved for the exclusive use of the Queen and her family, and nearly an equal amount to sustain the royal pleasure grounds.

THE cleverest royal woman in Europe is said to be Princess Blanche de Nemours. She is a Russian, is pretty and delicate, abhors society and is devoted to art. She is equally expert with chisel and brush.

PRINCE ALBERT VICTOR, the oldest son of the Prince of Wales is, according to report, a highly esthetic and fastidious young personage. A marked peculiarity of his is his desire to pay promptly for every thing he gets.

CHRISTINA, Queen-Regent of Spain, wears deep mourning still, but her dresses are elegantly and stylishly made: silk lace over black silk is used for the costumes, which are much draped with jet; her bonnets and parasols always match exactly.

ALFONSO XIII., the diminutive monarch of Spain, was recently presented by the Tailors' Guild of Madrid with the very smallest and handsomest uniform ever made. The suit is of the grade to which the infant was elevated at birth.

THE Emperor of Austria is a very popular monarch on account of the simplicity of his manners. He replies by "yes" and "no," and greets every body with an engaging smile and good nature. It seems to be his aim to set all at ease in his presence, and to treat his humblest subjects with courtesy.

REPORT says that Prince Bismarck becomes more irascible the older he grows, and when subjected to the slightest inconvenience his manners are decidedly impolite. He has taken to wearing silver spectacles, and lately prefers for an escort two huge bull-dogs, which ride with him in his carriage.

THE motto of the Prince of Wales was handed down from the time of the Franco-English war, over five hundred years ago. Upon the banner of the aged King of Bohemia, who battled and died for France at that time, was inscribed the three plumes and the words: "Ich Dien," I serve, which now appears upon the arms of Wales.

THERE is at Cowes, Isle of Wight, a floating bath for the use of the family royal. The bath consists of a well about twenty-five feet deep by fifteen, at the bottom of which is a wooden grating, which can easily be adjusted so as to afford any depth of water, from three feet to seven. A dressing-room adjoins the bath which is thoroughly enclosed by screens. It is about 150 yards from the beach adjoining the Queen's grounds.

SKIN, SCALP, BLOOD.

Having been a sufferer for two years and a half from a disease caused by a bruise on the leg, and having been cured by Cuticura Remedies when all other methods and remedies failed, I deem it my duty to recommend them. I visited Hot Springs to no avail, and tried several doctors without success, and at last our principal druggist, Mr. John P. Finlay (to whom I shall ever feel grateful) spoke to me about Cuticura, and I consented to give them a trial with the result that I am perfectly cured. There is now no sore about me. I think I can show the largest surface where my sufferings sprang from of any one in the state. The Cuticura Remedies are the best blood and skin cures manufactured. I refer to druggist John P. Finlay and Dr. D. C. Montgomery, both of this place and to Dr. Smith, of Lake Lee, Miss.

ALEXANDER BEACH, Greenville, Miss.

Mr. Beach used the Cuticura Remedies, at our request, with results as above stated

SAVED MY MOTHER'S LIFE.

Ever since I can remember, my mother has suffered from a milk leg. Nothing would do her any good. She had the best medical talent but they all did her no good. She suffered with her leg for thirty years and never knew a well day. She would have to sit up half the night, holding up her leg and moaning. She had no peace. She used all the best known remedies in the country without effect. I asked her to try your Cuticura Remedies. Got her a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, and she took it, and has taken in all about six or seven bottles, and now she is a well woman to-day. Her leg is entirely healed, and her health was never better. She can go out every day, something she has not done in ten years, so you see I cannot help stating to you about your wonderful Cuticura Remedies. You have saved my mother's life. I cannot find words to express my gratitude. I have advertised your Cuticura Remedies far or near.

Sneezing Catarrh

The distressing sneeze, sneeze, sneeze, the acrid, watery discharges from the eyes and nose, the painful inflammation extending to the throat, the swelling of the mucous lining, causing choking sensations, cough, ringing noises in the head and splitting headache—how familiar these symptoms are to thousands who suffer periodically from head colds or influenza, and who live in ignorance of the fact that a single application of Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh will afford instantaneous relief.

But this treatment in cases of simple Catarrh gives but a faint idea of what this remedy will do in the chronic forms, where the breathing is obstructed by choking, putrid mucous accumulations, the hearing affected, smell and taste gone, throat ulcerated and hacking cough gradually fastening itself upon the debilitated system. Then it is that the marvelous curative power of Sanford's Radical Cure manifests itself in instantaneous and grateful relief. Cure begins from the first application. It is rapid, radical, permanent, economical, safe.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.

PAINT YOUR BUGGY for ONE DOLLAR

The Only COIT & CO'S ONE-COAT BUGGY PAINT. Paint Friday, run it to Church Sunday. Eight Fashionable Shades: Black, Maroon, Vermilion, Blue, Yellow, Olive Lake, Brewster and Wagon Green. No Varnishing necessary. Dries hard with a "shine." One Coat and job is done. Indispensable to Farmers, Livery-Stable Keepers, and Repair Shops. The greatest money-saving invention of the age. Excellent for Lawn Seats, Flower Pots, Baby Carriages, Screen Doors, Furniture, Store Fronts, etc. Just the thing for the ladies to use about the house. Avoid worthless imitations. We warrant ours not to turn white and to wear at least one year. A quart does a buggy complete.

COIT & CO'S HONEST HOUSE-PAINT

Are you going to Paint this year? If so don't buy a paint containing water or benzine when for the same money you can procure COIT & CO'S PURE PAINT that is warranted to be an HONEST, GENUINE LINSEED-OIL PAINT and free from water and benzine. Demand this brand and take no other. Merchants handling it are our agents and authorized by us, in writing, to warrant it to wear 5 YEARS with 2 COATS or 3 YEARS with 2 COATS. Our Shades are the Latest Styles used in the East now becoming so popular in the West, and up with the times. Try this brand of HONEST PAINT. You will never regret it. You run no risk. Every job and every gallon warranted.

FLOOR-PAINT that WONT DRY STICKY

Ever buy Floor Paint that never dried beyond the sticky point, waste a week, spoil the job, then swear? Next time buy COIT'S FLOOR-PAINT, 4 suitable shades, warranted to dry hard as a rock over night. No trouble. No swearing. Be suspicious when substitutes are offered by Dealers, stating that "they are as good" as ours. It is not so. Cheap imitations cost less, give more profit but no satisfaction; and life is too short to waste time and money on them. COIT & CO., of CHICAGO, Manufacturers

BRIEFLETS.

—Join the elocution class and improve your general reading.

—Frank Gray, of the firm of Bump & Gray, is seriously sick.

—Work on the walls of the pumping house is now well under way.

—Mr. J. G. Wray is building a new house on Linn street, fifth ward.

—The Janesville Carriage Co. has shipped the first cutter of the season.

—North Main street has been measured for its new suit of water pipes.

—The Guards' Cadets assemble for drill this evening at the Guards armory.

—The religious services at the Baptist church will be contined this evening.

—Hand, table, bracket and hanging safety lamps, cheaper than common lamps, at 158 South River street.

—Mrs. Lotus Lee, widow of John M. Lee, of Magnolia, and Patrick Delaney, of Janesville, have been granted pensions.

—Buyers report that on account of the coming on of fall work among the farmers, very little grain is now being received.

—Mr. Chauncey Stevens, of the Central house, South Franklin street, is putting up a fire escape, complying with the state law.

—C. B. Conrad ended his ten years of service in the fire police last night. His position as treasurer was filled by J. A. Denniston.

—Gage & Littlejohn are now installed as proprietors of the Monarch, and have sent to Milwaukee and Chicago for new furniture and supplies.

Orders for the Rogers clothes line pole, mentioned in another column, may be left at Messrs. Griswold & Palmer's hardware store on Main street.

—The Modern Woodmen of America assemble in regular semi-monthly meeting this evening—lodge room in the Lappin block, East Milwaukee street.

—Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening (new quarters corner of North Main and North First streets)—regular weekly meeting.

—Elocution class for adults to-morrow at 4 p. m. Those wishing the special drill in deep breathing, calisthenics and voice building will do well to join at once. Rooms opposite postoffice.

—Sheriff John H. Strawser, of Monroe, Green county, arrived in the city this morning, having in charge three candidates for Waupun. He remained in the city with his prisoners until the 1:15 train north.

—A life size photograph of Roland Reed by the famous New York artist Sarony will soon grace the foyer of Myers opera house. It was sent with the inscription: "To P. L. Myers from a sincere friend, Roland Reed."

—Piles for the foundation of the Northwestern coal shed are being driven as rapidly as possible. The officials of the road are anxious to have the shed completed so that work may be begun on the remodeling of the yards. At present things are badly crowded.

—Walter Helms has hit on a new scheme. It is a six inch ball made up of half a dozen sizes of common twine and anybody buying fifty cents worth of goods has a guess at the twine's length. Two prizes are offered—one a guitar and the other a dollar's worth of sheet music.

—Janesville's complaints against the cost of "incidentals" in the public schools is being approved. The same trouble is met with in nearly all of the city schools of the northwest. It even invades so progressive a place as Chicago. Some of the newspapers say frankly that the number of new schemes now being tried on the tax payers looks very much like "boodlerism."

—From present indications the third series of the Building Association stock will be well taken. Advance figures from the report which will soon be made, show that the association has been more successful than in any town in the state. The investment offered is thoroughly appreciated and those that wish to take advantage of it should remember that the new series takes effect Monday, November 20th.

—Funeral services over the remains of Miss Lillie M. B. Knoff were held this afternoon. The ceremonies were of universal sadness, for all knew that the bereaved family still rested in the shadow of Death's presence and felt that others might be summoned from the home circle at any time. The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. S. P. Wilder, he being assisted in the other services by the Rev. Thomas Walker. At the close the remains were taken to Oak Hill for interment.

—The Beloit Free Press.—The chief engineer of the Janesville fire department sent away east to get a brass "sliding" pole to put up in the engine house for the boys to slide down from the upper to the lower room. A fifteen foot strip of the river road leading north from Beloit would have been much cheaper, and for "sliding" purposes much more familiar to a large majority of the Janesville boys, who have become so expert that North stands no show of catching 'em when they slide out.

—Fully one hundred of the members and friends of Christ church enjoyed the supper served in the Kenilworth block last evening. The menu was irreproachable and in common with the accomplished waitresses that presided over the various tables received many compliments. The supper was only the first of a series and is to be repeated each Tuesday. Next week there will also be a dance in Apollo hall, the dance being on Monday night. From all appearances this as well as the supper will be remarkably successful. The ladies in charge are thoroughly wide awake and will not rest until everything possible to make their entertainments enjoyable has been done.

PUBLIC OPINION.

What Janesville Says Regarding the Supreme Court Decision.

Few Dissenters from the Popular Verdict—Talk on the Street.

A Gazette reporter made the rounds this afternoon, listening to the opinions of citizens on the supreme court decision. A few of the representative ones are given below:

W. F. Carle—I'm glad of it.

S. C. Burnham—That's right!

S. Hayner—That is as it should be.

C. S. Jackman—Now all that I want is for Governor Oglesby to hold up his hands and do nothing.

B. F. Dunwiddie—If we are going to have any country at all that kind of decision is just what we want.

W. H. Ashcraft—That decision will make the rest of those fellows think they ought to behave themselves.

Ogden H. Fethers—My opinion? Why there's only one opinion admissible. The United States is a nation with a big N.

Mayor Winans—Now that the supreme court has made its decision I don't think that Governor Oglesby will dare to interfere.

Postmaster Richardson—Now that the law has been vindicated I wish Spies and all the rest of them might be struck by lightning. Hanging is too slow.

S. B. Smith—Satisfied? You bet I am If Jeff Davis will only die on the same day that the anarchists do it will be the best thing that ever happened.

Horace McElroy—I can't feel that the conviction of those men is any more than a sop thrown to public clamor. Trouble is very likely to follow.

J. P. Baker—I am just as much against anarchy as any one, but I'm afraid the supreme court has made a mistake. There is likely to be considerable trouble.

DEATH OF HON. ANSON ROGERS.

Ex-Mayor Anson Rogers died at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, just as the Gazette was put to press.

OBITUARY.

OLIVER HELMS.

Another old pioneer of Rock county has passed to his eternal rest. Mr. Oliver Helms, who for over forty years had been a resident of Rock county, died at his home 214 South Academy street, at eight o'clock last evening from the infirmities consequent on old age. For many years deceased lived on a farm near the Leyden house in the town of Center, and was one of the most industrious farmers of the early pioneer days. He leaves a wife and four children—John G. Helms, of Dakota; Mrs. A. Wiggin, of Center; Mr. Will and Miss Annie Helms, of this city—to mourn his death.

The funeral will be held at the house on Friday at 11 a. m.

EVANSVILLE.

—Miss Hattie Fifield, of Janesville, is visiting Miss Emma Matteson.

—C. M. Clifford is getting ready to go to work in the pinery this winter.

—C. S. Casler is building a new house on East Main street.

—Will Everson has returned to this village after an absence of two years.

—A number of cars of apples from New York have been received here, selling at $2.80 to $3.

—Mr. Lyman, who is putting up the electric plant, is bothered a good deal to get wire, on account of so much of it being used in the country. The factories can't make wire fast enough.

—G. S. Plaistead has put in a stock of boots and shoes, and will run it in connection with his repair shop.

—We have only four or five in this place who made any money out of Gogebic iron stock, and nearly as much as those have made will be lost by other parties in town; so, taking it altogether, this place will not make but little money; The losses are small on each so those who have lost will not be distressed by their loss. There has been a number of stories in circulation but they were far from being true.

—The recent rate of the Gogebic iron stocks will bring about $35,000, in this place which will help out the shortage of money here.

—Thomas Earl and an old resident of the town of Porter, also ex-sheriff of the county is quite sick, and his recovery is doubtful.

—Rev. E. R. Curry, of the Baptist church, has resigned to accept a charge at Freemont, Nebraska, and will move there about the first of December.

—V. E. Prentice, of Pierre, Dakota, visited at his father's a few days last week.

—Rev. Mr. Swearinger, of Whitewater, has been engaged by the Congregational society and will move there this week.

—Everybody takes Sagwa since the Kickapoos were here.

—The Gazette bindery is doing some excellent work and all should try them before going elsewhere for binding.

MILTON JUNCTION.

—Miss Minnie Webb, of Whitewater, visited with Miss Dora Thorpe a few days last week.

—Art Catlin, of Chicago, is visiting friends here.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Owen left for a few days visit with relatives in Randolph

—Eva L. Stone, of Whitewater, is visiting Miss Lou Mackey.

—Thorpe & Morris opened the skating rink in Odd Fellows basement Saturday night and will also open again next Saturday.

—Stewart McCullen, of Edgerton, sampled 40 cases of tobacco for D. G. Partridge Monday.

—Wm. Paul shipped two car loads of barley the first of the week.

—Olson's blacksmith shop is being reshingled.

—Mrs. Alonzo Richardson is very sick with typhoid fever.

—Mr. Wm. Paul left yesterday for a two-weeks' trip in Nebraska.

—Mrs. G. H. Button is visiting with relatives at Randolph.

—Clark Bros. shipped four car load of hogs Monday night.

—The Modern Woodmen, a secret society, has been organized here, with eleven members. It is an organization organized for the benefit of its members, where a member can get his life insured for almost nothing.

—Mortimore Whitehead, of New Jersey, lectured to the grangers and citizens of Rock Co. last Friday afternoon and evening, all those who were in attendance report him a first class speaker.

Choice New York Apples.

I have 500 barrels Niagara County N. Y. apples, principally Greenings. The finest fruit and largest barrels ever sold in Janesville. I am selling at $3.00 per barrel. Michigan and Canada apples from $1 50 to $2.50 per barrel.

THE FAIR CLOSED.

Last Night of the Sisters' Fair.—The Prize Winners.

The fair at the Guards' armory under the auspices of the Sisters of St. Joseph's Convent, which has been open for the past eight days, closed last evening. The fair has been a very flattering success, and the sisters are to be congratulated. Notwithstanding the fact that there was a regular jam on each evening, the best of order prevailed throughout, and all visitors appeared perfectly satisfied. Those who drew prizes on the closing night were:

Embroidered sofa pillow—No. 52.

Doll—Sister Geraldine—No. 19, held by Mary C. Denning.

Pair of blankets—No. 35, held by John Flaherty.

Plush hat—No. 4, held by Rev. E. M. McGinnity.

Chromo—No. 45 held by Louis Kneff.

Wax flowers—No. 12 held by J. J. Roach.

Swiss apron—No. 15 held by J. F. Donahue.

Water service—No. 28 held by Ellen Doran.

Hat rack—No. 90 held by F. M. Scanlan.

Patent rocker—No. 136 held by B. H. Baldwin.

China tea set—No. 372 held by George McWilliams.

Hand painted pin cushion—No. 84.

Blue comforter—No. 102 held by D. J. Concannon.

Twenty dollar gold piece—No. 255, held by Mary Sweeney.

ORFORDVILLE.

—Thursday evening, Oct. 27th, 1887, there occurred at Orfordville, Wis., one of the happiest events ever recorded, it being the marriage of Miss Randy E. Haugen to Mr. M. O. Rime, both of Orfordville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. K. Thorvildsen, pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church at Orfordville, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Haugen. At three p. m. the notes of the wedding march was struck up by Miss Hauna Haugen, and the happy couple entered the parlor, accompanied by Mr. N. E. Haugen and Miss Helen Skogen. The party immediately took their places underneath a large floral horse-shoe, where the ceremony was performed in the presence over one hundred guests, and the words were there spoken which joined the loving couple as husband and wife, "For better or for worse." After the ceremony hearty congratulations were tendered by all present, and then one and all did ample justice to the dainty viands so bountifully spread. The repast showed that nothing had been undone by loving hands. The entertainment after supper consisted of games and music, the latter being furnished by Rev. T. K. Thorvildsen, Dr. Johnson, Miss Celia Peterson and others. The singing by Mr. and the Misses Knutson, of Davis, Ill., and Dr. Johnson was well appreciated. The couple were the recipients of many valuable and costly presents, which, in itself, is sufficient evidence of their high esteem by all who know them. They have the best wishes of all in their journey of life which they have begun together.

MILTON.

—The campfire of Hamilton post and relief corps on the evening of the 25th, was a decided success. Phil. Cheek, Jr. made one of his telling speeches, and Mrs. J. B. Day, as she always does, gave the best of satisfaction. The supper was prepared and served by the ladies of the relief corps, and judging by the attention given it by the hundred or more who partook of it, was entirely satisfactory.

—J. B. Anderson has been buying barley at Stoughton during the past two week and has secured a big lot of it.

—The lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, held a very enjoyable lunch social in Odd Fellows hall last Saturday evening.

—A "crazy social" is the next novelty on the tapis the Iduna lyceum will manage the affair, which is a sufficient guarantee that it will be a success.

—Rev. Robinson, the newly arrived pastor of the M. E. church has moved into the Orcutt house on Madison avenue. The old parsonage has become too dilapidated for a comfortable winter residence.

—Mr. Hughes, of Whitewater, for many years the foreman in the roller mills at that place, has bought a half interest in the union mills here. The new firm propose to make things hum.

—Cremation will be illustrated in front of the drug store to-morrow, (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

—The students of the college held Halloween festivities on the campus Monday night. A huge bonfire, several smaller ones, an illuminated pole some 40 feet high, comic costumes, music by the kazoo band and other features, impossible to describe, but peculiar to the race of collegians, made up the programme.

—S. S. Oborn was the victim of a birthday surprise Monday evening. We have not been able to learn the particulars.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clarke returned from their visit to Merrill, Tuesday.

Strains and external injuries are the chief causes of weak ankles and joints. By the free use of Salvation Oil a cure will be effected in a short time.

"And there was a mask ball that night," yes, and they kept it up pretty lively until morning. You see they weren't afraid of the early frost—knowing that all the druggists keep supplied with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the old reliable standby.

MAGNOLIA.

—Married, at Fulton, Wis., Oct. 16th, by the Rev. Mr. Reed, Mr. Alhanon Royer and Miss Maud Becker, both of Magnolia, Wis.

—Miss Lettie Chase arrived in town Thursday from Boston, Mass. She is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chase.

—Elder Jameson, who has been quite sick is much better.

—Mrs. Ed. Roth, of St. Paul, Minn., who has been spending the past two weeks in town, returned home Friday.

Hundreds of novelties in children's misses, and ladies cloaks now on exhibition at Archie Reid's.

THE CALEDONIAN SOCIAL.

The Gathering of the Clans at Milton Junction Last Evening.

An Interesting and Entertaining Programme. Concluding with a Dance.

The Rock County Caledonian Society held its regular quarterly meeting last evening at the Patrons of Husbandry hall in the village of Milton Junction. The attendance was quite large, in fact the hall was crowded with ladies and gentlemen—old and young—many being present from the city.

Dr. James Mills, of this city, president of the society, opened the exercises of the evening in an address of welcome, concluding his timely remarks by introducing President W. C. Whitford, of Milton college, the speaker of the evening. There was much humor scattered through the speech of Prof. Whitford, especially in that part when he alluded to the pranks of the college boys on Halloween. His speech was received by the audience with great applause.

Following the speech of Prof. Whitford was a Scotch solo with guitar accompaniment, by Mr. Charles Ehrlinger, of Hanover, rendered in a manner that brought forth merrited applause.

"Tommy's Prize," a Scotch dialect selection, by Mrs. J. B. Day, of this city, captured the audience, as is the case wherever this talented lady and elocutionist appears.

Ed. Ehrlinger, of this city, appeared in his captivating German emigrant costume, and his every move before the audience was signalized by uproarous laughter. When he got a good ready he rendered in a most happy manner the German parody on "Poe's Raven," and so well did it please the audience that Mr. Ehrlinger was compelled to respond with the "Conthrolin' Onfinence ov Dhrink." Ed. is a show in himself.

Mr. Landeau then favored the party with a solo rendered in a very artistic manner, receiving well merited applause.

A local musical sketch—including many local hits—was well presented by Will Cody and Chas. M. Green, of Mastodon Minstrel fame. They did well.

Hon. Andrew Barlass, of Harmony, who never fails to please his hearers' favored the audience with one of his favorite Scotch ballads, which received applause.

Ed. Ehrlinger appeared again, this time with his dog Schneider, and gave the Telegraph song with guitar accompaniment. Ed. captured the crowd.

"My Ain Country," by Mr. Geo. Skinner, was well received.

Mrs. J. B. Day appeared again in a "Medley of Selections" which was faultlessly rendered, winning for her many new friends.

"Rock a Bye Baby" by Messrs. Chas. and Ed Ehrlinger, followed by "Who's Got My Golden Arm" by Ex-Mayor Alex. Richardson, of this city, closed one of the most pleasant entertainments ever given in that village.

A splendid supper was served the guests after which dancing, with Smith's orchestra accompaniment followed until the "wee sma' hours ayant the twa." The dance was under the able floor management of Messrs. R. W. King, William Paul and Peter Traynor. The quarterly meeting of the society was pronounced a grand success by all.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 35 degrees above zero. Clear with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 69 degrees above zero. Clear with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 17 and 67 degrees above zero.

EMERALD GROVE.

—A full line of underwear at Hasting's.

—Miss May McGregor plays the organ in the Congregational church in a very acceptable manner.

—Husking corn is now the principal business of the farmers. The crop is a short one.

—The annual meeting of the Emerald Grove branch of the Rock County Bible society will be held at the M. E. church Sunday morning. A collection will be taken and officers elected.

—Mr. Peter Delmater, who has been sick for some time still continues quite low. He is attended by Dr. Chittenden, of Janesville.

—Dr. J. H. Warren and wife and daughter, Lizzie, Mrs. W. D. Hastings and her son, Clisson, and Mrs. Geo. Colling, all of Janesville, made W. D. and E. A. Hastings a pleasant visit on Friday last.

—We hear that Mr. C. H. Wright sells off all his stock and farm machinery at public auction Saturday, November 5.

—The road district north of the Grove is putting a substantial culvert in the ravine a few rods south of D. Cummings place. This is a much needed improvement.

—There will be a social in the old Congregational church building on Friday evening next. The refreshments will be coffee and doughnuts which the ladies will please supply.

—Mrs. John Beesley, of Turtle Creek, and Johnny, her son, were in the Grove on Monday.

—Mr. Jas. Stoller, left for Doland, Dakota, on Thursday last, his family following on Monday. Mr. Stoller intends making his home in Dakota having purchased a 160 acre farm near Doland of Mr. Ensign Ransom. We are sorry to lose "Joe" from among us and hope that he may find the move an advantageous one. If industry and "push" will bring success we think Joe will realize it.

—Mr. C. E. Beaumont, who met with such severe injuries last summer, has now so far recovered as to be able to move around a little. His age and the serious nature of his injuries have combined to make his recovery slow and painful, but under the careful attention of his physician, Dr. Mills, and the good nursing he has received, he now bids fair to have both good use of leg and arm.

—Mr. Will Jones left on Tuesday last for Doland, Dakota, where he will visit his sister, Mrs. A. D. Barlass, and also many friends who moved from this locality.

Renew Her Youth.

Mrs. Phœbe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness; and am able to do my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only 50c at Frank Sherer & Co's. drug store.

NOTES FROM THE THEATRE.

Recent Bookings at the Myers House.

Manager Myers has heard nothing of the "Burr Oaks" company since it was first booked. As the company's date was next Friday it seems likely that something is "out of gear." There will probably be nothing at the opera house until Lillian Lewis comes here on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week. Her plays are "The New Magdalene" and the "Unequal Match."

Roland Reed will be here on Saturday, November 12th. His play, "Humbugs," is likely to fill the house to overflowing.

Among the attractions that Manager Myers has recently booked are Sol Smith Russel in "Bewitched;" the Gorman Bro's Spectacular Minstrels; the Madison Square Comedy, "A Night Off," Mestayer's "We, Us and Co."; and the well known melo-drama "The Streets of New York."

PERSONAL.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. Leavitt have returned from a visit to the natural gas regions of Indiana.

—Mr. Alva Russell, the popular 'bus man, returned last evening, after a week's absence, and is again on deck for business. Mr. Russell has been in the 'bus business for twenty-five years, and regrets the accident which occurred during his absence.

ROCK.

—Chas. Crossman commenced work last Saturday as brakeman for the Northwestern company. He is on the Milwaukee and Belvidere run.

—Preparations have been made to organize a literary society. The young people are to meet at the residence of Mr. Chas. Waite on Wednesday evening for the purpose of organizing.

—The late freeze up caught many of our farmers napping in respect to their potatoes. Most of the potatoes in the ground are unfit for use.

—Wanted—To know where our weed commissioner is. We should think by the appearance of some farms that he ought to appear soon if the weeds are destroyed in time to prevent seed bearing. What is the use of having a law if it is not enforced.

AFTON.

—Mrs. A. B. Waterman is having a new addition built on the south side of her dwelling. W. H. Gilbert is doing the work.

—C. G. Antisdel has purchased the residence and village lots belonging to T R. Taylor and will move hither in the spring.

—We are glad to announce that the news published in the Gazette and Recorder last week relative to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crossman being residents of Janesville, was a mistake We haven't lost the "fair" couple yet and don't expect to.

MECHANICAL MENTION.

"CRUSHED bamboo" is coming into use as a paper-making material, and is stated to be already employed with the most satisfactory results in the paper supplied to several London dailies.

A RECENT specimen of the high degree of skill in the working of iron is a steel goblet, entirely forged by hand from a solid piece of one and a half inch round steel without the aid of boring tools.

A DRESDEN mechanic has succeeded in casting glass in the same way as metal is cast, and of an equal density with the metal. Experiments are being prosecuted with the purpose of employing the material as rails on railways.

A STEAM horse-power is equal to three actual horses' power; a living horse is equal to seven men. The steam-engines to day represent in the world approximately the work of a thousand millions of men, or more than double the working population of the earth.

A NOVELTY in silver is the discovery of a process of electro-plating with silver upon wood, and its adaptation to handles of all kinds, including umbrellas, canes, carving knives, etc. The silver is thrown upon the wood by a process which has proved extremely difficult in practice.

IT is now possible to construct a complete sewing machine in a minute, or sixty in one hour; a reaper every fifteen minutes, or less; 300 watches in a day, complete in all their appointments. More important than this even, is the fact that it is possible to construct a locomotive in a day.

TO BLACK or polish and make Russia stovepipe look like new, take of asphaltum two pounds, boiled linseed oil one pint, oil of turpentine two quarts. Fuse the asphaltum in an iron pot, boil the linseed oil, and add while hot. Stir well and remove from the fire. When partially cooled add oil of turpentine.

AN inventor has completed experiments which, he says, show the practicability of making stone type. They are, of course, of large size, to substitute wood letters. The material is an artificial stone, pressed into molds, and then hardened, afterwards being polished on the surface. There will be no warping and no expansion or contraction, and each font will be exactly the same as that preceding.

A VERY good way to anneal a small piece of tool steel is to heat it up in a forge as slowly as possible, and then take two fire boards and lay the hot steel between them and screw them up in a vise. As the steel is hot it sinks into the pieces of wood and is firmly imbedded in an almost air-tight charcoal bed, and when taken out cold will be found to be nice and soft. To repeat this will make it as soft as could be wished.

IN order to make an alloy which gives great hardness and ductility to red brass without having recourse to phosphor bronze, a mixture of green bottle glass is recommended to be added to the other metals. To this end a pound of finely-pounded glass is to be added, say to a fifty-pound crucible charge, or two per cent., care being exercised to place the whole quantity of the glass at the bottom of the crucible, while the other metals are on the top.

IN the manufacture of corks a thorough knowledge of the various qualities and growths is necessary, in order to fit one for cutting them. It is essential, in order to obtain a good solid cork, to take care that its axis, as it is cut from the bark, be parallel with the axis of the tree on which the bark grew; but the broad, flat corks have to be cut perpendicular to the axis of the tree. Only the finest corks are now made by hand. A good workman can turn out, in the method described, about one thousand corks a day.

ACCORDING to a German paper, iron may be freed from ingrained rust in this manner: Immerse the article in a nearly saturated solution of chloride of tin, even if much eaten into. The duration of the immersion will depend upon the thicker or thinner film of rust; in most cases, however, twelve to twenty-four hours will suffice. The solution of chloride of tin must not contain too great an excess of acid, otherwise it will attack the iron itself. After the articles have been removed from the bath they should first be washed in water and then with ammonia, and be dried as quickly as possible.

An Increase in Exports.

VIENNA, Nov. 2.—The United States Consul General's report shows an increase of $150,000 in Austrian exports to America from January to October, as compared with the same period last year.

Ruined by a Rocket.

NEW YORK Nov. 2.—A rocket sent up at a political meeting last night set fire to the Brooklyn residence of Dr. B. Sleet Pierce, in Montague street, and it was damaged $50,000.

FROM YOUTH TO AGE.

The Horrible Fate of a Young and Once Beautiful Ohio Girl.

On the Brecksville road, about six miles from the town of Forain, O., lives a farmer named Max Harmon, who came from Pennsylvania about a year ago. Harmon's family, says a Cleveland correspondent of the Chicago Herald, consists of a wife and three children. The oldest, named Mary, is a young lady nineteen years of age, who has passed through one of the strangest and most painful experiences that ever fell to the lot of a human being. A short time ago she was a plump, rosy-cheeked girl of robust health and a sunny disposition. To-day, through the influence of a most peculiar accident, she is, in all but years, a shrunken, peevish old woman. The story of this strange metamorphosis is as follows: Mary was engaged to be married to a man named Jacob Eberlein, who had followed the Harmons from Pennsylvania, and afterward worked for Mr. Harmon and made his home with the family. About six weeks ago the young couple came to Cleveland to make some purchases and to see the sights. One of the young man's friends worked in one of the electric light establishments at the time. Eberlein proposed to take his future bride through the place and show her the machinery. It appears that a broken wire of her panier or bustle had unperceived worked its way through her dress. While passing along the wire came in contact with one of the powerful electric machines, and her hand resting on an iron bar at the time completed the circuit, and she received a severe shock and fell insensible to the floor. In a few moments she revived sufficiently to be removed from the place, and was taken to her home. The muscles of her face were drawn and strained, but it was thought that that would shortly disappear.

Medical aid was summoned. For four days the girl lay in bed in a paralyzed condition. Then she regained the use of her limbs, but immediately began to lose flesh rapidly. The hair on the left side of her head turned gray and began falling out. After four weeks Miss Harmon was able to be about and attend to most of her household duties as usual, but in that time she had been transformed from a young and handsome girl into a feeble old woman. Her form, which had been plump and rounded, was thin and bent and the skin on her face and body was dry and wrinkled. She had been a sweet-tempered, affectionate girl, but is now peevish, irritable and selfish. Her voice is harsh and cracked and no one to look at her would imagine that she was less than sixty years of age. The Harmon family are horrified and well-nigh heart-broken by the fate of their once handsome daughter, while young Eberlein is almost frantic over the change in his affianced bride. The physicians claim that the electric current communicated directly with the principal nerves of the spine and the left side of the head and that the shock almost completely destroyed their vitality. Strange to relate, the girl's eyesight is but slightly affected, but her hearing is almost totally destroyed. Notwithstanding her condition, the physicians claim that her chances for living her allotted number of years are not materially lessened, although she can never recover from her prematurely aged condition. Instances in which a person's hair has turned white in a single night from fright, grief or some excessive nervous shock are not rare, but this is supposed to be the first case in medical history in which a person has been known to step from the bloom of vigorous youth into the decrepitude of old age within a week.

What Am I To Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquors but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure, try Green's August Flower, it cost but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.
